

HINCHINBROOK ISLAND - The world's largest Island National Park also features one of the seven great walks of the world - the Thorborne Trail - which is an outstanding 32 km (2-5 day) walk from one end of the island to the other. Access is restricted and all walkers must purchase a camping permit from Queensland Parks and Wildlife Services before travelling to the island.

HINCHINBROOK CHANNEL - The protected waters of this Channel offer enthusiasts ideal year-round fishing and boating conditions.

BROADWATER STATE FOREST PARK - This tranquil rainforest area features a popular 1.5 km walking track, crystal clear swimming creeks and the magnificent Giant Fig Tree.

WALLAMAN FALLS - At 268m, Wallaman Falls is the longest single drop waterfall in Australia. Set in the picturesque Lumholtz National Park, explore the area's walking trails and rock pools.

MACKNADE MILL - Is the oldest in the southern hemisphere. Golf Course and Bows Club.

VICTORIA MILL - The largest in the southern hemisphere

JOURAMA FALLS - Set in the Paluma Range National Park, this area features cascading waterfalls and freshwater swimming holes. It is also ideal for bird-watching enthusiasts.

TYTO WETLANDS - A unique 90 hectare preserved natural wetland site integrating lagoons, walking tracks with an abundance of native flora and fauna.

MOUNT FOX - Journey through lush tropical vegetation with views of the Stone River Valley. Formed 100,000 years ago, Mt Fox is Australia's youngest, dormant volcano surrounded by a diverse range of flora, fauna and geological specimens. Those more adventurous can climb to the top.

LUCINDA SUGAR JETTY - The world's longest off-shore sugar loading jetty spans an impressive 5.76km from the mainland.
